The following list of resources has been generated by the U-M Office of Technology Transfer team to support startups and U-M alumni working in startups and small businesses. We acknowledge and thank the following for publicly providing information from which we have sourced this list, including the Michigan Economic Development Corporation, U-M College of Engineering Center for Entrepreneurship, EntryPoint, Ann Arbor Spark, Inc., Forbes, as well as many others.

Michigan: Business, Loan and Financial Programs:

- NEW TechTown Stabilization Fund - To mitigate barriers for Detroit’s most vulnerable businesses and entrepreneurs, TechTown Detroit will administer an emergency fund that provides working capital grants in amounts up to $5,000 to qualifying applicants. Application window is Tuesday, April 14, 2020 at 9 a.m. until Friday, April 17, 2020 at NOON.
- Waiver of certain late filing penalties and interest for businesses - The Michigan Department of Treasury is waiving penalty and interest for late payment of tax and late filing for the return due on March 20, 2020 for 30 days. Read more at Michigan.gov
- Unemployment Benefit Expansion - Governor Whitmer has temporarily expanded unemployment benefits to workers with unanticipated family care responsibilities, and to those who are sick, quarantined, or immunocompromised and without access to paid family and medical leave. The executive order also expands the State’s Work Share program, encouraging employers to implement the program that permits employers to maintain productivity during declines in business activity instead of laying off workers. Eligible employees should apply for unemployment benefits online at Michigan.gov/UIA or 1-866-500-0017. A factsheet on how to apply for benefits can be found HERE.
- Michigan Work Share Program - If employers are financially distressed but hope to continue operations by cutting back hours, they are encouraged to use the Unemployment Insurance Agency’s Work Share program that allows employers to maintain employment levels and business operations during declines in regular business activity rather than laying off workers. More information about the program can be found at www.michigan.gov/workshare.
- The Michigan Small Business Relief Program will provide up to $20 million in support for small businesses negatively affected by COVID-19 through $10 million in small business grants and $10 million in small business loans. Funding is expected to support businesses facing drastic reduction in cash flow and the continued support of their employees. Read more on MichiganBusiness.org
- TechTown Detroit Emergency Fund - TechTown Detroit is administering an emergency fund that provides working capital grants in amounts up to $5,000 to qualifying small businesses impacted by COVID-19 in the city of Detroit. Eligibility factors include income levels for the business owner’s household, number of employees, impact of COVID-19 on business income, and more. Read more on TechTownDetroit.org

National: Business, Loan, Financial and Grant Programs:

- Economic Injury Disaster Loan (EIDL) from the SBA (Federal)
- Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act - allocated $350 billion to help small businesses keep workers employed amid the pandemic and economic downturn. Known as the Paycheck Protection Program, the initiative provides 100% federally guaranteed loans to small businesses. Importantly, these loans may be forgiven if borrowers maintain their payrolls during the crisis or restore their payrolls afterward.
  - Specific programs under the CARES Act:
    - NEW Paycheck Protection Program - Forgivable loans up to 2.5x monthly payroll
    - NEW Economic Injury Disaster Loan (EIDL) - Up to $2m (<4%, 30yr) loan to alleviate specific economic injury. Not forgivable.
    - NEW Emergency EIDL Grants - Up to $10k paid out in <3 days, payments are currently delayed due to volume of applicants
    - NEW Refundable Employee Retention Credit - A refundable tax credit against certain employment taxes equal to 50 percent of the qualified wages an eligible employer pays to employees after March 12, 2020, and before January 1, 2021. Eligible employers can get immediate access to the credit by reducing employment tax deposits they are otherwise required to make. Also, if the employer's employment tax deposits are not sufficient to cover the credit, the employer may get an advance payment from the IRS.
    - NEW Emergency Family and Medical Leave Expansion Act - Government requires companies to provide 2 week sick leave and 10 week family leave for employees impacted by Covid-19. Government will cover up $500/day sick leave, and up to $200/day family leave.
